

COMMUNITY TREE TO SPREAD CHEER

New Christmas Tree at Station to Be Erected by Civic Organizations.

BIG SERVICE PLANNED

Narberth, whose community Christmas spirit is already far-famed through its window candles, its carols and its gaily lighted tree, promises to outdo its own past record this year.

The community tree, on the station plaza, where its bright lights greet homecomers and passersby through the holiday season, will again be the center of the celebration. The tragic fate of the last tree, which went up in smoke in the end, has not discouraged the Woman's Community Club, whose civic committee has taken the initiative in this as in other years. With the co-operation of the Borough Council, the churches and all other organizations in the borough, another tree will take its place, bigger, brighter and better than ever.

Plans for a great community song service, under the leadership of Bruce Carey, a well-known Narberthite, and director of the Mendelssohn Club, Philadelphia, are already under way. On Christmas Eve, at seven o'clock, early enough for all the youngsters to join in and for their parents to spare an hour from last minute preparations for Santa Claus. Everybody is asked to gather round the tree and sing their old favorite Yuletide songs.

Members of a number of churches have decided to gather at the church doors and walk together, carolling as they go, to the tree in the center of town. From all directions all Narberth will assemble and at the call of the bugle join in a real Christmas songfest.

The committee and local merchants have made it possible for everyone interested to contribute a little now and then in the next ten days to pay for the cost of lighting and supervising the tree. Boxes have been placed in local stores into which citizens may drop coins, big or little, few or many, with the assurance that they are helping to give Narberth a fine start towards a really Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Other contributions may be sent to Miss Florence A. Pray, chairman of the civic committee of the Woman's Community Club, 310 Woodside avenue, Narberth.

Bazaar Successful

The Methodist bazaar, held last Saturday in Elm Hall, was a splendid success, according to reports received from the Ladies' Aid Society. Mrs. A. W. Ward, as president of the society, extends her thanks to all who helped make the bazaar so successful. A few attractive left-overs in the way of dolls may be had at the home of Mrs. William Bailey, 228 Essex avenue, and some fancy pieces of linen and towels at the home of Mrs. Bawden, Wynnewood road and Woodside avenue. Many favorable comments were received upon the dinner served Saturday night.

Attend Dinner

At a testimonial dinner given to Cyrus H. K. Curtis at the Poor Richard Club last Friday evening, a goodly sprinkling of Narberth citizens were to be seen. As a part of the program an original poem was read by Robert Durbin commemorating the founding of the Post together with some of the career of Ben Franklin, interwoven. Among the Borough residents at the affair were Howard Kairer, J. B. MacKenzie, Ralph S. Dunne, Frank MacAdams, Robert Durbin, Dr. E. S. Deubler and J. B. Williams.

Hold Christmas Party

The Dr. Benjamin Rush Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held its stated meeting Saturday, December 8, at the home of the regent, Mrs. Charles M. Irwin. Donations were made to Ellis Island, Grace Ferry Hospital and the Children's Hospital. A most enjoyable Christmas party followed the business meeting. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

DR. ALLEN SPEAKER AT FATHERS NIGHT

Meeting of Mothers' Council Monday in Charge of Dads.

PROGRAM A MYSTERY

The meeting of the Mothers' Council will be held in the auditorium of the Narberth Public School on Monday evening, December 17, at 8 o'clock. This program will be in charge of the fathers, but is to be an open meeting to which all mothers and fathers are most cordially invited.

The principal speaker of the evening will be Dr. Frederick H. Allen, of the All-Philadelphia Child Guidance Clinic. Those who have heard Dr. Allen will know how proud the Narberth Fathers feel to have secured this speaker for our town. Those who have not heard him can scarcely afford to miss this opportunity. He will relate some true stories of real experiences with children which will be of vital interest to both parents and teachers.

The rest of the program is shrouded in mystery. There are rumors that there will be music by a guest—name unknown. There are also reports afloat that there may be eats. This is all conjecture, however. But it is well known that whatever the fathers undertake they carry through to a triumphant finish. The opinion current is that on the evening of December 17 the homes of Narberth will be practically parent-less. Every father and mother, except those suffering with broken legs, will be at the Narberth School to find out what it is all about. The writer has already spoken for a front seat.

The executive committee, under the chairmanship of Kenneth L. M. Pray, is as follows: Frank C. Smith, William D. Russell, A. E. Wohler, C. C. Tyson and H. V. Whitney. There are many more fathers on the other committees and all are doing their utmost to make this the best meeting of the year.

TROUBLE AND JOY FOLLOW SNOWFALL

Many Accidents Reported, But Sledgers Have Great Time.

ROADS SOON CLEARED

A snowfall of several inches on Saturday and Sunday, followed by a cold snap and slippery roads, resulted in nearly a score of automobile accidents in Lower Merion and necessitated prompt work to clear township roads for traffic. On the other hand sledgers were in their heyday wherever a hill could be found steep enough to make the sport interesting.

The possibility of additional accidents was decreased to a large extent by the early removal of snow from the roads. John S. Dunne, superintendent of the Township Highway Department, ordered out six snow plows, each manned by four men, as soon as the snow became thick enough to make its removal feasible. Warmer weather late in the week formed slush on many of the pavements in this section.

Charles Decker, co-operative of the United States Weather Bureau, at Narberth, termed last week "a cold one." On the last five days of the week temperatures were from four to seven degrees below normal and on Monday the mercury went to 19 above zero.

The precipitation for Saturday and Sunday, according to the meteorological records, was 38-100 of an inch.

Further expansion of these records has been arranged for the Narberth observatory, according to Mr. Decker. A self-recording rain and snow indicator will shortly be installed.

The mechanism is very sensitive, indicating amounts as small as five one-thousandths of an inch, though amounts not less than one-hundredth of an inch are entered on the records.

The scale of the record-chart is

OFFICERS ELECTED BY SCOUT BACKERS

Wentz, Burns and Wilson Head Fathers' Association for Coming Year.

COMMITTEE REVAMPED

At a well-attended meeting of the Fathers' Association and the Troop Committee, joint sponsors of the local boy scout troop last Wednesday night, new officers were elected for the ensuing year.

Walton M. Wentz, treasurer of the borough council and editor of the Pennsylvania News, the official organ of the Pennsylvania Railroad, was elected to the post of president of the Fathers' Association, thereby succeeding W. Russell Green. Arthur W. Burns was chosen as vice president and I. N. Wilson as secretary and treasurer.

On the board of directors of the Fathers' Association in addition to the three officers named above, who are members ex-officio, the following were selected: Robert C. Collins, Edwin P. Dold, W. Russell Green, W. E. Knecht, Allan Schubert and H. V. Whitney.

At the simultaneous election of members of the Troop Committee, the following were chosen for the coming year: Harvey J. Harman, C. C. Mason, James E. Meredith, Robert Mueller, Thomas E. Laughlin, John A. Snyder, George S. Trimble and Walton M. Wentz. Arthur W. Burns and I. N. Wilson, ex-officio, as officers of the Fathers' Association.

The Troop Committee subsequently selected as their chairman Harvey J. Harman, a member of the Troop Committee during the past year. Mr. Harman is an instructor at the Lower Merion Junior High School and has served as coach of the Haverford College football team for the past two years.

If plans being fostered by the scout backers go through, the Narberth Troop may look forward to the most eventful year in its history, and it is certain the officers of the Fathers' Association and the Troop Committee will do everything in their power to make it a big year for the boys.

Dane Writes Rotarians

A letter from O. Friis Hansen, of Denmark, who had been the guest of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club in the spring, was read at the meeting Tuesday. Mr. Hansen enclosed with his letter a small Danish flag to be added to the cluster of emblems owned by the club.

John Johnson, prominent in Bible class work and in the affairs of independent grocerymen of Philadelphia, was the speaker. The meeting was held under the direction of Howard F. Cotter's Attendance Committee and the talk emphasized that part of rotary activity.

E. H. Snow, principal of the Lower Merion Junior High School, offered a concert by the choir of his school to be given in the form of Christmas carols at the next meeting of the club.

Store Closed

Tuesday at 5 P. M. the padlock proceedings which had been instituted against Claude H. Crane, local druggist, following his conviction in Federal court on October 8 for illegal sale of liquor, took effect with the posting of notices on the windows and door of the store and the locking of the door. The notices read: "Closed by order of the United States Federal Court." Three signatures were attached. The padlock was ordered for one year by Judge William H. Kirkpatrick at a special Federal Padlock Court last Friday.

Stage Another Sale

Another sale will be held by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Lutheran Church on Tuesday, December 18, at the Caldwell building, due to the fact that the annual bazaar was held at an earlier date than usual this year. Inasmuch as many contributions came in late people will be given a chance to acquire many bargains in the way of linens, aprons, home-baked goods and attractive Christmas gifts.

This is your paper; your advice will be appreciated.

MERCHANTS DISCUSS PARKING PROBLEMS

Councilmen and Board of Trade Confer; Latter Agree on Plan.

DUNNE OFFERS PLAN

Additional light was thrown on the parking problem and perhaps a partial solution worked out at a joint meeting of the Narberth Board of Trade, and the Police and Fire Committee of Council on Tuesday night at Council Chamber, Elm Hall.

At the conclusion of the two hours' discussion, participated in by business men, the Burgess and members of Council, a motion was adopted by the Board of Trade and passed to the Police and Fire Committee as the plan favored by the Board of Trade.

The plan adopted advocates parallel parking on both sides of Haverford avenue in the block between Narberth and Forest, and angle parking in the block between Forest and Essex, with parking on one side of the street only in this block, as has been the case during the last two years.

This plan will be taken up by the Burgess, the Police and Fire Committee and Superintendent Smith of the Lower Merion Police, and if acted on favorably may be instituted in the week between Christmas and New Year's.

A comprehensive plan involving several important points, many of which were supported by other members of the board, was offered by Ralph S. Dunne. Mr. Dunne's program included the following propositions: 1, the removal of the bus line from Haverford avenue. An alternate route turning at Iona and following along Windsor avenue to Essex was suggested; 2, the widening of Haverford avenue from Narberth to Essex, from one to two feet on each side; 3, angle parking on the north side of Haverford (the same as is now in effect) and parallel parking on the south side of the street with a liberal interpretation of the time limit; 4, the possible removal of the grass plot at the station, the space to be devoted to parking if feasible; 5, parallel parking on the intersecting street in the business district (Essex, Forest and Narberth); 6, a policeman or policemen assigned specially to traffic duty during rush hours (7.30 to 9 A. M. and 4.30 to 6.30 P. M.).

The chief controversy centered around the question of the type of parking for Haverford avenue, parallel or angle. Chris Koch, president of the Board of Trade, stressed the danger of angle parking, pointing out that it was unsafe for the public. The Burgess showed that the number of accidents reported on Haverford now amount to two or three a week as opposed to the same number per month a couple of years ago. "The time to change a dangerous condition is now," said Mr. Koch, "we don't want to wait till someone is killed before doing it." Evidence was given that the Public Service Commission did not approve of angle parking on any street less than 50 feet in width.

Convincing figures were prepared in conjunction with a diagrammatic sketch of the situation by the Burgess. Allowing 12 feet for a car parked on an angle on the north side of the street and eight feet for one parked on the south side, and 10 feet for each lane of traffic through the middle, the total making a necessary al-

Sub-Juniors to Meet

Mrs. H. I. McConnell will speak at the meeting of the sub-juniors on Monday evening at their club-room in Elm Hall. Miss Carrie Louise Douglass and Miss Virginia Douglass will be hostesses for the evening, and following the business meeting refreshments will be served.

Hold Benefit

A motion picture benefit, featuring the picture "Street of Illusion" will be held at the Narberth Theater on Monday and Tuesday by the Evangelical Circle of King's Daughters. Tickets may be had from Mrs. F. H. Hurth, 116 Essex avenue, or Mrs. F. E. Derby, 106 Narberth avenue.

RE-ELECTED

Colonel I. A. Miller, executive of the Pennsylvania Railroad, who was re-elected president of the Narberth School Board at its reorganization meeting last Friday. This will be Colonel Miller's third term as president of the Board.

Miller Re-elected as School Board Head

At the reorganization meeting of the Narberth School Board last Friday evening, Colonel Isadore A. Miller was re-elected president of the board for another year. Mrs. F. T. Van Auker, vice president of the board, was also re-elected for a similar term.

Election of the two remaining officers, secretary and treasurer, does not come up till May. Those positions are now held by Dr. Leroy A. King and Dr. Walter Steckbeck, respectively.

This will be Colonel Miller's third year as president of the school board. He was appointed to the board three years ago to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Robert J. Dothard. The night he took his place on the board he was elected its president, succeeding the late C. Howard McCarter.

Two women now occupy positions on the school board, Mrs. Van Auker, vice president of the board, and Mrs. Josie S. Monks, who succeeded Mrs. E. C. Batchelor, who withdrew.

The regular meeting of the board will be held next Friday night, December 21, at 8 o'clock.

ROUTINE MATTERS ABSORB COUNCIL

Bids for Garbage Collection During Year 1929 Opened.

LIGHT FOR SHADY LANE

Five bids for the collection of garbage in the borough were opened at council meeting Monday night. The bidders were: William J. Fundson, who had submitted a bid of $3600; D. M. Carter & Son with a bid of $4000; C. Franklin Carter, $3800; Byrne & Co., by John J. Smith, a bid of $3750, and D. C. Wilfong with a bid of $4800.

The bids were referred to the Committee on Water, Light and Health, which will pass on them and a special meeting of council will be called to award the contract. Wilfong has the contract this year and for several years preceding.

The report of the Building Committee showed that building operations were continuing at about the same level. Eleven new permits were issued during the month of November at a cost of $40 for operations estimated to cost in the neighborhood of $6995. The building inspector reported a total of 65 inspections made during the month with 13 operations completed.

Two ordinances were passed at first reading, the budget and ordinance setting the tax rate at 19 mills, and were put on the second reading calendar.

Streets that can't be found are scarcer than keyholes, but such a street was Shady lane, which had no light at its Montgomery avenue end. A recommendation of the Water, Light and Health Committee that a street light be installed at this point was approved, so that inhabitants of Shady lane will no longer have that claim to fame. Lights will likewise be installed on Wynnedale avenue, which has been without illumination hitherto.

SUNDAY COASTING RAISES COMMOTION

Attempts to Protest Coasters by Blocking Essex Fail.

ROWDYISM DEVELOPED

It seems strange that such an innocent thing as the first snow fall of the season should provoke violent discussion and threats, but such was the case on Sunday with the coasting on Essex avenue.

By Sunday morning the hill was in fine shape for the popular winter sport of coasting, and young and old were not slow in finding this out. The fact that traffic on Essex avenue is not blocked off by the borough for coasting on Sundays as is the case through the week did not prevent the enthusiasts, who were out in numbers before long, from making good use of the street.

The continued use of the street by busses and motor vehicles aroused some citizens to the danger of the situation and attempts were made to get the street closed off. A committee of boys and citizens waited upon Burgess Henry T. Frye with this object in view, but the street remained unclosed, the Burgess maintaining Sunday coasting was not provided for in the police regulations adopted a few years ago, and to close it off would be a direct violation of them, and furthermore to put an officer on duty there all the time would amount to countenancing it by the borough authorities. One irate citizen offered $200 as the start of a fund to get the whole borough government kicked out of office if the street was not closed.

As the day progressed the size of the crowd indulging in the sport increased, making the conditions all the more hazardous. And added to this, snowballing of passing cars became popular, which developed into rowdiness and use of profane and obscene language by an element of the coasters, some of whom were from out of the borough, that became seriously disturbing to the services in the Methodist Church and to the residents of Essex avenue.

Burgess Frye was leaving town early Sunday afternoon so he communicated with Edward S. Haws, chairman of the Police and Fire Committee of Council, asking him to keep his eye on the situation. Mr. Haws called the police headquarters at Ardmore and asked the Superintendent to send some men down to see that conditions were as they should be on Essex avenue. The officers, however, did not appear on the scene till later in the evening when things had calmed down considerably.

Casualties for the day included one woman who had been struck by a snow ball and two little girls who were run into by other sleds, one of them suffering from a bloody nose and bruises.

Over 200 were using the street for coasting purposes on Sunday night, many of whom were from the neighboring sections of Bala-Cynwyd and Ardmore, attesting to the popularity of the sport and to Narberth's facilities therefor.

Samuel MacAdams, pastor of the Methodist Church, appeared at Council meeting Monday night to register a protest against the disturbances which interrupted the services at his church, particularly the element of rowdiness noticeable on Sunday. Coasting on Sunday, Mr. MacAdams considered unnecessary anyway.

No more coasting on Essex avenue on Sunday will be the rule from now on, according to unofficial reports from members of Council. Interruption of church services cannot be allowed, it was pointed out, nor can the borough workmen be expected to erect and take away the barricade three or four times a day to suit coasters in between church hours.

SCHOOL FOR BLIND REQUESTS $125,000

Overbrook Institution Asks Public to Help Support Work.

NOW FACES DEFICIT

The School for the Blind at Overbrook is asking the public to contribute to a fund to meet present deficits in capital expenditures and operation of the institution. About $125,000 is required for current needs. It is imperative that certain additional equipment for instruction be purchased and also that proper living accommodations be provided for some of the older pupils now entirely inadequately housed. The estimated cost of these additions is $85,000. The operating deficit is approximately $40,000 a year. Despite the income from endowment and State appropriation, there is a deficit of $175 per pupil.

During the 95 years of its existence the School for the Blind has enrolled 2900 pupils, two-thirds of whom have been and are self-supporting. Overbrook provides a good general education and in addition develops the body through physical training, and endeavors to enlarge the aesthetic cultural side of life by instruction in music.

Overbrook carries its pupils up from the kindergarten through a three-year high school course; its graduates enter the senior classes of the high schools of Philadelphia and other cities and graduate with the seeing pupils in these classes, often going on with them to institutions of higher learning.

A placement bureau, in charge of Liborio Delfino, himself blind, is maintained by the school at 1305 Locust street, Philadelphia, for the purpose of aiding students in securing positions.

Dr. O. H. Burritt, the principal of the Overbrook School, has had many years of valuable experience in his chosen field, and is recognized as one of the most forward-looking leaders in work for the blind.

Checks should be drawn to the order of James Crosby Brown, treasurer, and mailed to the School for the Blind, Sixty-fourth street and Malvern avenue, Overbrook, Philadelphia.

Officers and managers of the institution are: President, James P. Hutchinson, M. D.; vice presidents, John S. Newbold, George E. deSchweinitz, M. D., Beauveau Bories, Jr. and Edward Hopkinson; secretary, Eli Kirk Price; treasurer, James Crosby Brown; managers, George S. Robbins, William H. Jefferys, M. D., George M. Coates, M. D., Charles J. Biddle, Arthur N. Coles, Alexander P. Gest, John Cadwalader, Jr., Nicholas G. Roosevelt, R. Montgomery Haines; principal, Olin Howard Burritt.

Thomas W. Cronin has been appointed chairman of the "Christmas Cheer" committee of the Ardmore Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Cronin will co-operate with the Police Department in taking care of the needs of the poor this Christmas.

Sunday Coasting

Out of the coasting difficulties of last Sunday there arise two points that are clear: the first is that boys will be boys and will coast whether there is a blocked off street or not; and second, that it is imperative that some protection be given them when they do coast. Incidentally, the presence of police authority will effectually check any such exhibitions of rowdiness as occurred last Sunday.

The borough has let it be known that Sunday coasting on Essex avenue will not be allowed in the future due to the annoyance to the services at the Methodist Church. This is a fair regulation, and furthermore it cannot be expected that the borough workmen who erect and demolish the barricades can come on duty several times a day to provide coasting there in between church times.

The only alternative seems to be to use some other street. Sabine avenue, for example, between Homewood and Essex, has been suggested as an under-sandy to Essex. The coast would not be as long as it is true, but there is a pretty fair hill and has been used by several boys who recommended it in glowing terms.

If this suggestion proves feasible, it would not harm the borough to have the officer on Sunday duty be around off and on to see that sportsmanship prevails, that vehicles are kept off the street, and that those who have no chance to coast during the week (of whom there are plenty) receive their fair share of the sport.

Successful Coach

Some of her old love of competitive sports and ability to put up a staunch fight have been handed down by Miss Mabel Fritsch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Fritsch, of Wynnewood avenue, new coach at Collegeville High School, to the girls on her hockey team.

Last year Miss Fritsch, a graduate of Lower Merion High, led the Ursinus College co-eds' varsity basketball team; this season her Collegeville hockeyists claim the championship of the Montgomery County Hockey League.

As the hockey season is over, Miss Fritsch will now take up the organization and training of the girls' basketball team of the high school.

Miss Fritsch, who graduated with honors at Ursinus College last June, is an instructor of mathematics in Collegeville High and is also retained as Preceptress of South Hall Dormitory at the College. It might be inferred, from the activities in which she is engaged, that she is quite a busy girl.

Collegeville High girls have played 10 high school games besides a practice game with Ursinus College, when they held the college varsity to a 5 goals to 4 loss. That and a 4-to-1 loss to Ambler High were the only games the Collegeville players did not win by big margins.

The Collegeville players have scored 90 goals to 11 against them. They played their final and deciding contest yesterday, when they defeated Lower Merion 4 to 0.

BUCKWHEAT

and its fusion point

THE fusion point is the degree of temperature at which coal fuses or cakes together, forming clinkers and causing great difficulties in the management of a furnace.

The average temperature of the fire in your furnace is 2500 degrees. Jeddo-Highland Buckwheat has an analyzed fusion point of from 2800 to 3200 degrees, so there is very little danger of this unpleasant fusing together in burning Jeddo-Highland Buckwheat. No other Buckwheat tests out so high.

On three scores is Jeddo-Highland Buckwheat preferable then—because it is high in carbon, low in ash and has an unusually high fusion point.

HONORS PILE HIGH UPON PAUL SCULL

Named on All-Americans,
Receives Elgart Trophy.

Paul T. Scull, of Bala, has won recognition as one of the outstanding college football players of the United States. Chosen by experts on numerous selections for All-American teams, he has received more post-season publicity than is usually accorded to the whole University of Pennsylvania squad.

Throughout the season the ability of the Penn captain as an individual player and particularly as a team leader was recognized by his opponents and in the stands. But it was in the game with Cornell, the annual Thanksgiving Day encounter and Paul's final appearance in Penn moleskins, that he won greatest fame.

Among those who have picked

Scull as the best fullback in the country are Grantland Rice, Davis J. Walsh, Henry L. Farrell, famed sports scribes; W. W. Roper, Princeton coach; Robert C. Zupke, Illinois; Howard Jones, Southern California, Dan E. McGugin, of Vanderbilt University, and Harry Stuhldreher, Villanova.

The Penn captain received an additional honor this week when he was awarded the Elgart Trophy, given annually to the most valuable player of the Pennsylvania varsity.

At the request of the Penn coaches, Paul is coming out for the basketball team and may bring additional prestige to Lower Merion High School where formerly he starred particularly on the floor although he was also one of the best football players ever turned out at the Montgomery eke school.

Court Delays Decision

Decision on the awarding of the injunction which the corporation of Haverford College and near-by residents are seeking against the Atlantic Sales and Service Company, Railroad avenue and Lancaster pike, Haverford, was withheld by Judge J. Ambler Williams following the presentation of the attorneys' arguments last Wednesday at Norristown.

MONTH'S PERMITS TOTAL $477,195

Seven More Than in November, 1927, but Cost Is Less.

Seventy-one building permits were issued in Lower Merion township during the month of November by Inspector Rahn. The total cost of the structures planned is $477,195. These figures show an increase over November, 1927, of seven permits, but a decrease in cost of buildings of $91,453. In November of last year 64 permits were issued for a total of $568,648.

Last month permits were taken out for 15 private dwellings at a total cost of $335,000, an average of more than $22,000 per dwelling. Four permits for twin dwellings were issued, the total cost amounting to $55,200. Fourteen private garages are listed for a total of $14,675, an average of over $1000 apiece.

Other permits include one business building, $27,500; 19 alterations or additions, $32,095; one lodge building, $3000; one playhouse, $500; one greenhouse, $3200; three chicken houses totaling $4000; nine signs, $1125; one tear-down, $100; one farm building, $500, and a temporary porch enclosure, $300.

South Ardmore led the districts with 15 permits for $165,860. Other district summaries of permits and totals for last month are: North Ardmore, eight, $6075; West Ardmore, three, $3450; Bala, three, $1450; East Bryn Mawr, four, $1760; West Bryn Mawr, five, $13,450; Cynwyd, four, $16,250; General Wayne, five, $89,300; Haverford, three, $77,200; Merion, four, $3200; Merion Square, four, $16,700; Pencoyd, eight, $38,200; Rosemont, five, $44,300.

New buildings again totaled two-thirds of Lower Merion's $62,655 building program this week, according to Inspector Rahn's office.

A permit was issued to W. W. Potter to build a private home for W. A. Andrus on the corner of Remington and Ingeberg roads, Wynnewood, at a cost of $30,000. George B. Turner is the owner and builder of a $10,000 residence on Henley road, Overbrook Hills, in Merion.

Five Years More

Dr. B. K. Wilbur, Haverford, who has been reappointed president of the Lower Merion Board of Health, which he organized in 1908, to serve his fifth five-year term.

WILL HEAD BOARD FIVE YEARS MORE

Dr. Bertrand K. Wilbur Is Reappointed for Fifth Term.

Announcement was made this week that Dr. B. K. Wilbur, Haverford, was reappointed by President Frank H. Sykes last month to serve as head of the Lower Merion Board of Health for his fifth consecutive term of five years. A quarter-century of service will be rounded out in September, 1933.

The board was organized in 1908, with Dr. Wilbur as president, William P. Landis, Ardmore, as chairman of the finance committee, and George C. Anderson, Ardmore, secretary. All three officers still serve, with Miss Blanche E. Messer, General Wayne district, formerly of Cynwyd; Dr. Edward A. Shumway, Merion, and Dr. Alexander R. Evans, Ardmore, other members of the board.

Defendant Forfeits Bond

For two years Jesse Cox, of Lower Merion, has been defying the authorities of Montgomery county by failing to appear and serve a sentence of three months imposed upon him.

On Wednesday his bond was forfeited and a bench warrant issued for his arrest. P. J. Lawler, of Bala, is the defendant's surety.

About two years ago, Cox was convicted by a jury of driving an automobile while intoxicated, in Springfield township.

Cox was thereupon ordered to appear and begin his sentence. He has failed to do so.

Don't blame the weather

If your car starts hard these frigid mornings, maybe the oil is to blame. Change to Mobiloil Arctic and see how easily the engine will "catch" when you turn on the starter.

But even more important, Mobiloil Arctic lubricates perfectly in zero weather, guarding your motor in the months when it does its hardest work.

The MONTGOMERY BUS COMPANY SENDS Greetings!

At the Christmas Season and the near approach of the New Year we feel that we should not be availing ourselves of a real opportunity were we not to enter into the spirit of Christmas with Thankfulness and Good Will to All.

The Montgomery Bus Company has, by studied attention to every detail involved in the problem of transportation, carried, with safety and despatch, its increasing patronage with creditable regularity and always endeavored to maintain service at the high standard it deserves.

The human side of this problem of safe and reliable transportation is in the hands of carefully selected young men, especially trained, that they may not only meet the exactions demanded of them in the operation of the busses but are men of character and alertness in aiding patrons to the best of their ability—not, for one moment, forgetting their politeness.

With the Spirit of Thankfulness for the Service that the Montgomery Bus Company has thus been able to render do we approach the New Year with the determination to improve such service wherever and whenever within our power.

COMMUNITY CLUB
NEWS

Gift Day at the Women's Community Club on Tuesday was a sight to gladden the eyes as more than 100 packages were displayed, given by the members to the children at the "State Sanatorium." Many children's eyes will shine and hearts be made happy by these gifts. Mrs. G. N. Gill, chairman of Welfare Committee, in thanking the women for their co-operation in the Christmas work, said this hymn inspired her "for we must share if we would keep, that blessing from above."

Mrs. H. A. Jacobs gave a report of the Red Cross drive sponsored and carried out by 90 workers most of them club members. A resolution was passed that the club secretary write to Senator Reed, Borah and the President asking for quick action by the Senate on the Multilateral treaty. As this was the last meeting before Christmas, Mrs. C. A. Farmer, club president, gave her Christmas message. It was in the form of a poem, "Three Gates," taken from the Arabian and a wish for kindness for ourselves and our members.

The speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. H. A. Foster, chairman of literature for Montgomery county, gave a most original talk on books. She made a plea for the older authors as well as keeping up with the current output, also for the return of books borrowed as one of the new resolutions to be made by club women. A bit of advice offered was "read the proper book at the proper time and pick a book for your mood; as Stevenson said a man should have two books at hand, one to read and one to write in, which was a plea for the scrap book." She advocated trying to memorize poetry while doing routine tasks in the home-like dish washing, etc.

"The Gift of the Magi," the clever little gem by O. Henry, was read and also a poem written by a young English servant called "The Domestic Prayer," written to "The Lord of pots and pans and things" of which she asked to be made a saint "by getting meals and washing up the plates." The talk ended in a general discussion of current books and good books for gifts.

The Literature class will meet on December 20 at the club room at 10 o'clock. More about the Christmas service and tree later.

Data from the thermograph, a self-recording thermometer, the chart of which runs for a week, are being entered up for each hour of the day on the regular forms used for such data.

Considerable time was spent at the meeting hearing the list of tax exonerations, which amounted to $3024. By careful scrutiny $14.50 was taken off the list, that amount being collectable as opposed to the remainder which is uncollectable due to removals or duplication of the tax list.

Shelves Searched
For These Books

Speaking of books—Director Pouder, of the Export and Import Bureau of the Baltimore Association of Commerce, is responsible for this wild tale:

Four investigators, a German, a Britisher, a Frenchman and an American went to Africa to study the elephant. After some four or five years of research, each returned to his native land and burst into print.

The German wrote a work in five octavo volumes, entitled "Introduction to the Study of the Elephant."

The Britisher wrote a manuscript of 100,000 words on "Commercial and Imperial Aspects of the Elephant."

The Frenchman wrote a brochure (80 pages, bound in lavender leather with gold hand-tooling) on "Love-life of the Elephant."

The American wrote an advertising broadside on "Bigger and Better Elephants."

The Library regrets to state that it has none of these books.

As to the number of cars that can be accommodated, five less can be parked in the same area by parallel parking than is the case with angle parking. The great danger of angle parking is, as everyone knows who has parked in that manner on Haverford, when cars are parked on either side it is practically impossible for a driver to see whether any cars are approaching in either direction. Some not too experienced drivers, it was pointed out, when backing, release the clutch rapidly causing the car to shoot out into the street in the direct patch of two lines of traffic. That no serious accidents have occurred as yet from this situation it was thought is something to be thankful for and something to guard against with greater precautions in the future.

There is no immediate hope of getting the busses off Haverford avenue, the Burgess said, though the bus company's license comes up again next May for renewal, and something might be accomplished at that time if a concerted effort with whole-hearted backing is made. The Burgess added, however, that statistics were available which showed the business of the bus company was on the increase, and the commissioners would not look favorably upon an intended change in route when the the company could point to increasing public usefulness.
